Expectations

“For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.” – Luke 12:48

Time for a little transparency. This month I am beyond excited, and a little bit intimidated. I have had the privilege of being in ministry for over 40 years, and ordained for better than 35 years. Over the course of this journey, I feel like I have reached a major milestone. Some years ago, Michelle and I felt God's leading to move into the Methodist Church and its Wesleyan traditions. This journey has been challenging and at times frustrating. But through it all we knew God was moving us in this direction. This year at Annual Conference I will finally be recognized as a Full Elder within the Methodist Church. It is very exciting to see the work finally pay off. But at the same time, I am intimidated. Not so much by the achievement, but by the expectations that come with such a title.

Jesus tells us that when God entrusts us with opportunities, authority, or with responsibilities that effect other lives, God will also hold us highly accountable. As a Pastor, it is not the judgment of members that I must live up to, although I do try to be all that I can be for you, it is rather the expectations of God's that I must be keenly aware of. God has high expectations.

As I sat in my office pondering this reality, I came to realize that this same truth holds true for each and every one of us. Perhaps God has blessed you with amazing kids, or grandkids, that you will influence in powerful ways, remember that to whom much is given, much will be required. Maybe God has called you into a role within his Holy Church; teacher, worship leader, team member, remember that to whom much is given, much will be required. Then again, to realize that God has placed within us the gift of His Spirit, called to be witnesses to Him in world that desperately needs to know the love, grace and wonder of God, remember that to whom much is given, much will be required. Life is about expectations, and we must choose how we live into those expectations.

I don't know what your journey has been, but I do know that God has special plans for each and everyone of you. As I stand before our Bishop this month and have my ordination recognized and am given the title of Elder, I will be embracing these high expectations. And as you stand in the presence of a Holy God, He asks you...do you embrace the expectations that go with being called a Child of God? As we live into God's expectations will live into God's amazing blessings.

Your Fellow Laborer In Christ,
Bro. Joey

much will be required.*

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for your many acts of kindness, and especially for your prayers in support of our family as my courageous grandchildren (Dan and Beverly) experienced the surgical miracle of a live donor liver transplant. They are both doing well and expected to resume normal lifestyles by August. Our family is humbled by the awesome Grace of God in healing.

In his Grace,
Jurdy Michaels

Grief Support Group

Theresa Kilgro has been leading a great support group for a couple of years here at Randall's Chapel. If you have had the passing of a love one, let me encourage you to check out this ministry and group to find some good support and encouragement. They are meeting every other Friday. If you are interested contact Theresa or the church office.

Their next meeting will be June 24th at 10:00 a.m.

The 2022 North Alabama Conference will gather in person on June 22-24 at the Von Braun Center in Huntsville. Conference members and guests will gather under the theme "Disciples Celebrating Discipleship" based on Acts 2:46-47.

All Annual Conference activities will take place at the Von Braun Center. Due to construction, Conference will not meet in North Hall as it has in the past. Instead, this year's Annual Conference will gather in South Hall — the larger convention hall between North Hall and the Embassy Suites hotel. Mission displays, District Check-in tables and Registration Services will be visible when traveling through the main corridor.

There are numerous parking options around the Von Braun Center, including a large parking deck directly below South Hall, with easy access to the Annual Conference meeting space by elevator.

Schedule

District Check-in will open on Wednesday, June 22 at 2 p.m. the Clergy Executive Session will follow at 4 p.m. Annual Conference will officially open Wednesday at 7 p.m. with Opening Worship and the Service of Licensing, Commissioning and Ordination. Thursday and Friday will feature worship, learning and business sessions. The schedule for each of those days is 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Worship

Worship is always a special part of Annual Conference. Annual Conference will open on Wednesday night with Opening Worship and the Service of Ordination, Commissioning and Licensing. During this time the Conference will celebrate new clergy.

Thursday and Friday will start with morning worship. This year, the guest teacher is Bishop David Graves, who serves as the Resident Bishop of the Alabama-West Florida Conference and the South Georgia Conference. He will focus on the theme of Disciples Celebrating Discipleship.

Annual Conference will close on Friday afternoon with Closing Worship, the fixing of appointments and the Celebration of Life Service.

More information about the 2022 North Alabama Annual Conference is available at www.umcna.org/ac2022.
