Be Still And Know

Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!

Psalm 46:10

Wars and rumors of war. Many of us have watched in horror and frustration as we turned on the news and saw the images coming out of Ukraine the final days of February. It can seem at times as if the world has gone mad...and there is nothing we can do about it. It seems that the leaders of the nation and world have lost sight of the people...and there is nothing we can do about it. It seems that evil is triumphing...and there is nothing we can do about it. Then God speaks eight simple words; “Be still, and know that I am God.”

In the midst of turmoil and strife, God still sits on His throne. And He WILL be exalted above it all. Greater than any war or rumor of war there is God, who is and will always be our refuge and strength, a very present help in times of need (vs. 1). During this trying and tumultuous time on the world stage, never forget, that God is still God.

We are currently in the time of Lent. Lent is one of those times when we stop and look to our relationship with the Most High God; our need to repent and turn to God; our need for Jesus. Often people will talk about what they will “give up” for Lent. A favorite show, activity, a food, or some other important thing in their day to day life. Perhaps, more than anything else, we need to give up fear, stress, and doubt. Yes, war on the world stage is horrific. Yes, rising prices and struggling economies can stifle our lives. Yes, tragedies in our lives and relationships can bring us down. Yes, life is hard. And yes, God still declares; “Be still, and know that I am God.”

I want to challenge you during this season of Lent to move beyond just the sacrifice of material, or temporal things, and to sacrifice on the altar of faith your worry, doubts, angers and all such struggles, and remember Who it is in whom we have cast our trust. Be a people who know that the God of the universe is still God and we can trust Him with our lives, our futures, and even the world.

In the beginning of the very next Psalm the Psalmist write; “Oh, clap your hands, all you peoples! Shout to God with a voice of triumph! For the Lord Most High is awesome; He is a great King over all the earth” (Psalm 47:1-2). Knowing the awesome God that we serve, I choose to spend this time of Lent by being still, and knowing that He is God.

As Always, I Am Blessed Beyond Measure To Be Your Pastor,
Bro. Joey

What is Lent and why is it celebrated?

Lent is the season of the church year that follows the Epiphany Season. It is a time we set aside each year to remember the love of God that is poured out through Christ Jesus on the cross in His death; and His defeat of death, sin and Satan in Christ's death and resurrection that brings Eternal Life to you.
