Thanksgiving

*Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His name. –
Psalm 100:4*

I was pondering a song from the movie The Sound Of Music. The famous lyrics state; “these are a few of my favorite things....” During the season of Thanksgiving, we will find ourselves being encouraged to think of the things for which we are thankful. Perhaps it is your family, and the always (sarcasm intended) happy and smiling children. Or maybe you are thankful for your health; or your job; or your friends; or your church; or your.... The point is, this is the time of year we are encouraged to give thanks.

But what does it mean to really give thanks? The Psalmist tells us to enter into God’s presence with thanksgiving in our hearts and lives. To sing praises. To let it be known that we are thankful. So, me being me, decided to look up that word “thanksgiving” that is being used here. To give thanks is an act of avowal (open acknowledgement) and adoration (worship, love, and devotion). For the Christian, to give thanks means to acknowledge that it is God who gives us all things and blesses our lives. For the believer to give thanks is to show our worship, love and devotion for the One who loves us so much He sent His only son into the world to redeem us.

What I found really interesting, is not so much what thanksgiving is in the definition, but how the word can be translated, showing us how thanksgiving is truly expressed: confession, sacrifice of praise, and offering. We acknowledge our thankfulness by confessing our need and total dependence on His grace. We live our thankfulness by giving Him praise even when we may not feel like it (sacrifice of praise). We show our thankfulness by offering to Him...us.

I want to challenge you to truly think this year about being thankful. We are facing some trying times in our world, our country, our church. In this time, we can choose to be angry, or we can choose thanksgiving. To be thankful, we must know it is God’s work in us that gets us through these trying times. And God’s got this, so I choose to come into His presence with thanksgiving in my heart.

Thankful to be your Pastor,
Bro. Joey

Randall's Chapel will not be hosting Thanksgiving this Year. We have made a donation to Barry Shelton at Holy Smokes. He has taken this ministry over the last couple of years. If there is anyone wanting to work with them, we will have a sign up sheet once he knows where help is needed.

Life Resource Services of Jackson Co.

We are open Monday thru Friday from 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

November Collection:

Lysol spray, water, crackers, can soups, crackers, spaghetti noodles, paper towels, and antibacterial wipes. We can always use volunteers to help. Thank You for your support.
