Randall's Chapel GMC

November 2023

From Your Pastor's Heart

One of the great challenges for us as a church is to effectively communicate our Christian beliefs to individuals outside of our community of faith. There are certainly many circumstances contributing to this challenge, but I would be willing to argue that the greatest obstacle to being an effective witness is one's inability to articulate what he/she believes and why.

Without a firm foundation of the fundamentals of our Christian faith, preserved for us and instilled in us by The Triune, Living God through His Holy Scriptures, we will continue to struggle reaching our friends and acquaintances for the sake of the Gospel.

One term that is being resurrected in my vocabulary as I recapture my Wesleyan theological heritage, is the term "Catechism". Most Methodists that hear this word, if they recall hearing it at all, think of the Christian education process of the Roman Catholic Church prior to a young person's first Communion. In reality however, the term Catechism describes an educative and regulative formulation of church doctrine. More simply put, Catechism teaches us what we believe about God and what we have based those beliefs on for centuries.

For as long as I am blessed to be the Pastor of Randall's Chapel GMC, I pray that I will be faithful in my calling to teach and reinforce all of our understanding of the church's essential teachings, our ability to recall them and our willingness to proclaim them to a lost and suffering world. Let us all commit to this challenge for the sake of the Gospel.

Peace be with us all.

Pastor Woody
