From Your Pastor's Heart

WOW!!! Randall's Chapel, we are off to a blessed beginning! Kim and I are so very blessed to be serving our Lord and Savior, Jesus, alongside you in our new home-town of Scottsboro!

Can you believe it's September already? Soon it will be cooling off, kids and "kids at heart" will be dressing up and expecting candy, families will be gathered around tables and giving thanks and before we know it, we will be celebrating the birth of our Savior. In what seems to be a blink of an eye, 2023 will have passed into history and we will lean into the head winds of 2024.

While time seems to move so fast, sometimes we find ourselves stuck where we are. Stuck physically, emotionally and most importantly, spiritually. Over the next several months the Randall's Chapel Leadership Team, Small Groups, Ministry Teams and many of my Sunday morning Sermons will be focusing on the challenges of "Moving from Here to There". Wherever we are, whether physical, emotional or spiritual, is the "Here". And, wherever it is that the Lord is calling us to, is the "There".

When Kim and I were preparing to move to Scottsboro a few months ago, we were confronted by the abundance of what we had accumulated since we last moved eight years before. And when we realized all the "baggage" it would take to move all of it to where God was calling us to "Go and Be" now. We, in a healthy way decided some of the things that we had for a season we did not need moving forward. In fact, some of the baggage, if kept, would be detrimental to our ability to move forward. So, we donated many things in the hope someone else would benefit from it, and some things we simply discarded.

As we inventory our spiritual "Here", most of the time the Lord will reveal to us that we are carrying baggage that is detrimental to the journey He has in store for us. It is imperative that we embrace this journey that is before us. It is also imperative that we do not resist the spiritual house cleaning the Lord reveals to us is necessary for us to get from "Here", where we are, and "There", where he is calling us to "Go and Be". Kim and I look forward to our journey with you.

Celebrate the Journey!

Pastor Woody

Voices Lifted for Christ

If you have missed being a part of a true performance quality choir or have never been a part of a performing choir but have the God-given ability to sing, there is a great opportunity coming this fall.

As of July 1st Scottsboro welcomed the Rev. James "Woody" Woodin and his wife Kim to our community. Of the many gifts and graces the Lord has blessed this ministry couple with is the gift of performing and teaching music. Their combined 60+ years of proclaiming the Gospel through song and discipling others in this high calling has afforded our community the opportunity to bring gifted voices from throughout our area to join together for the sake of the Gospel!

Rehearsals for a Christmas Cantata will begin Sunday, September 10th at 4:00pm. There will be a minimum of three performances in the Month of December in three different venues which will increase our opportunity to share the Good News that God is still with us.

If you have questions and/or would like to join this community-wide evangelistic effort, you are welcome to reach Pastor Woody and Kim via the following.
